

The Italian Permanent Delegation to the OECD, the OECD Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities (CFE) and the OECD Agricultural Codes and Schemes, in cooperation with the International Organisation of Vine and Wine (OIV), the World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) and the International Centre for Advanced Mediterranean Agronomic studies (CIHEAM), organize to the webinar

Blockchain in the agri-food supply chain

How can DLTs impact current international practices?

 18 December 2020  11:00 – 12:30 CEST (Paris time)

AGENDA

11:00 – 11:10 Introductory Remarks

- Ambassador Mr Antonio Bernardini, Permanent Representative of Italy at the OECD
- Hon. Mirella Liuzzi, Secretary of State, Ministry of Economic Development (Italy)
- Ms Lucia Cusmano - Deputy Head of SME and Entrepreneurship Division, OECD Centre for Entrepreneurship, SMEs, Regions and Cities (CFE)

11:10 – 12:05 Moderated Panel Session

Moderator:

- Mr Marco Bianchini - Economist of SME and Entrepreneurship Division, OECD CFE

Panellists:

- Mr Csaba Gaspar, Programme Manager, OECD Seed Schemes, Trade and Agriculture Directorate (TAD)
- Mr Giorgio Delgrosso, Chief digital transformation officer, OIV
- Ms Karen Bucher, Project Manager, OIE Observatory
- Ms Eleonora Ciciriello, Information Management Officer, CIHEAM
- Mr Massimo Morbiato, CEO and Mr Francesco Fiore, Business Development Manager, EZLab (Italy)
- Mr Oliver Oram, Chainvine (UK)

12:05 – 12:25 Open Q&A discussion amongst panellists and participants

12:25 – 12:30 Wrap-up

- Ms Sophia Gnych, Senior Programme Officer, OECD Seed Schemes, TAD